

Temp Agent

Story By Greg Galloway

Written By Keisha Evans & Greg Galloway

WGA Registration # 2125838

(C) 2021 2-G Digital Media,
Inc.

ggalloway@2-ginc.com

Phylly stands in front of a TEMP AGENT.

TEMP AGENT
(without eye contact)
Fill out this form.

She tosses it to Phylly without regard. Phylly sits down at a chair across from the desk and fills out the application.

She notices people coming in and out the temp agency. A MOTHER HOLDING A BABY while her toddler pulls on her dress, a THIN MAN with dark circles around his eyes, and a YOUNG MAN with dread locs and tattoos all over his face.

She finishes the application and approaches the temp agent's desk.

PHYLLY
Here is my application.

She hands it to her.

PHYLLY
I'm willing to do any job you place me at, and I'm a quick learner.

TEMP AGENT
Do you have a resume?

Phylly hands her the resume.

PHYLLY
Yes, I do.

The temp agent gives it a quick glance.

PHYLLY
As you can see, I've mostly done driving jobs until recently but I can-

TEMP AGENT
We'll give you a call.

PHYLLY
Ma'am I really need some work, like this week.

CONTINUED:

TEMP AGENT

I said we'll give you a call.

She staples the application and resume together and tosses onto a pile of applications.

TEMP AGENT

Next.

Phylly stands there for a moment. The mother holding a baby, with her toddler next to her lightly bumps Phylly out of the way.

MOTHER

Excuse me.

Phylly exits.